CHAPTER 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 The Articles of Association are formulated in accordance with the Company Law of the People's Republic of China (中華人民共和國公司法)

If the Company creates shares of other classes, the order of payment of dividends and other distributions on shares of other classes shall be specified.

Article 14 The Company shall issue shares under the principles of openness, fairness and equality and shares of the same class shall carry same rights.

The issuance conditions and price per share of the same class in the Company's same issuance shall be the same; the same price shall be paid for each share subscribed for by any entities or individuals.

Article 15 All the shares issued by the Company have a par value denominated in RMB which shall be RMB1 for each share.

"RMB" referred to in the previous paragraph means the legal currency of the People's Republic of China.

Article 16 The Company may, with approval from the China Securities Regulatory Commission (the "CSRC"), issue shares to domestic and overseas investors.

For the purpose of the preceding paragraph, the term "overseas investors" shall refer to investors from foreign countries or Hong Kong, Macao or Taiwan that subscribe for shares issued by the Company. The term "domestic investors" shall refer to investors inside the People's Republic of China, excluding the above-mentioned regions, that subscribe for shares issued by the Company.

The shares issued by the Company to domestic investors for subscription in RMB shall be referred to as Domestic Shares. The shares issued by the Company to overseas investors for subscription in foreign currencies shall be referred to as Foreign Shares. Foreign Shares listed domestically shall be referred to as "domestic-listed Foreign Shares". Foreign Shares listed overseas shall be referred to as "overseas-listed Foreign Shares"; among which, overseas-listed Foreign Shares which have been admitted for listing on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("Hong Kong Stock Exchange"), the par value of which is denominated in RMB and which are subscribed for and traded in Hong Kong dollars shall be referred to as "H Shares".

"Foreign currencies" referred to in the previous paragraph means the legal currencies of countries or districts outside the PRC which are recognized by the foreign exchange authority of the State and which can be used to make payment for the share price to the Company.

The Company's shareholders may list and trade their unlisted shares on the overseas stock exchange upon approvals of the CSRC. Listing and trading of such shares on overseas stock exchange(s) shall also comply with the regulatory procedures, provisions and requirements of overseas securities market(s). Unlisted shares are converted to Foreign Shares according to legal procedures and are listed and traded on an overseas stock exchange, without voting at a shareholder's general meeting or class meeting of shareholders. Overseas-listed Foreign Shares converted from Domestic Shares are in the same class as that of original overseas-listed Foreign Shares.

Article 19 Domestic Shares issued by the Company are retained under centralized depository of the relevant securities depository institutions for safe custody. H Shares of the Company shall primarily be placed in the custody of the Central Depository under HKSCC Nominees Limited and may be held by shareholders in their own names.

Article 20 Subject to the approval of the Company's plans for issuing overseas-listed Foreign Shares and Domestic Shares by the CSRC, the Board of the Company may arrange for implementation of such plan by separate issuances.

The Company may separately implement its plan for issuing overseas-listed Foreign Shares and Domestic Shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph within fifteen (15) months from the date of approval of the CSRC, unless otherwise provided by the CSRC.

Article 21 Where the Company issues overseas-listed Foreign Shares and Domestic Shares respectively within the total number of shares specified in the issuance plan, the respective shares shall be fully subscribed for in one go. Where it is impossible for respective shares to be fully subscribed for in one go under exceptional circumstances, the shares may be issued in several tranches subject to the approval of the CSRC.

Section 2 Increase/Reduction and Repurchase of Shares

Article 22 The Company may, based on its business and development needs and in accordance with laws and regulations, increase its capital in the following manners upon respective resolutions being adopted by the shareholders' general meetings:

- (I) by public offering of shares;
- (II) by non-public offering of shares;
- (III) by allotting bonus shares to its existing shareholders;
- (IV) by placing new shares to its existing shareholders;
- (V) by capitalizing its capital common reserve;
- (VI) by any other means which is permitted by laws and administrative regulations and the CSRC.

The Company's increase of capital by issuing new shares shall, after being approved in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association, be conducted in accordance with the procedures stipulated in relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and relevant regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 23 The Company may reduce its registered capital in accordance with the procedures provided in the Company Law and other relevant requirements and the Articles of Association.

Article 24 Under the following circumstances, the Company may repurchase its shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association:

- (I) to reduce its registered capital;
- (II) to merge with another company that holds its shares;
- (III) the shares are to be used for employee share ownership plans or equity incentives;
- (IV) to purchase its own shares from its shareholders who are against the resolution regarding the merger or demerger with another company in a shareholders' general meeting;
- (V) the shares are to be used to convert corporate bonds issued by the listed company that can be converted to shares;
- (VI) it is necessary to maintain corporate value and shareholders' equity.

Where the Company purchases its own shares for the purposes of item (I) to item (II) above, it shall obtain approval at the shareholders' general meeting. Where the Company purchases its own shares for the purposes of item (III), item (V) and item (VI) above, it shall be subject to approval by way of Board resolution at a Board meeting attended by more than two-thirds of the Directors. Following the acquisition of its shares in accordance with the foregoing, such shares shall be cancelled within ten days from the date of acquisition in the case of item (I) and transferred or cancelled within six months in the case of items (II) and (IV) above; and such shares shall be transferred or cancelled within three years in the case of items (III), (V) and (VI) above and in case of the total number of shares of the Company held by the Company shall not exceed 10% of the total number of shares issued by the Company. The nominal value of such Shares which have been cancelled shall be reduced from the registered capital of the Company, and the Company shall promptly apply for registration with the original company registration authorities of the change of registered capital of the Company.

Article 25 The Company may repurchase its shares in one of the following manners:

- (I) making a general offer to repurchase shares from all shareholders in the same proportion to their shareholdings;
- (II) repurchase through open transaction in stock exchanges;

(III) repurchase through an off-market agreement;

(IV) other means as permitted by the laws, administrative regulations and the CSRC.

If the Company purchases its own shares in the case of items (III), item (V) and item (VI) of Article 24, it shall be conducted by way of open and centralized trading.

Article 26 The Company must obtain the prior approval of the shareholders in a shareholders' general meeting (in the manner stipulated in the Articles of Association) before it can repurchase shares outside of the stock exchange by means of an off-market agreement. The Company may, by obtaining the prior approval of the shareholders in shareholders' general meeting (in the same manner), release, vary or waive its rights under an agreement which has been so entered into.

An agreement for the repurchase shares referred to in the preceding paragraph includes (without limitation) an agreement to become liable to repurchase shares or an agreement to have the right to repurchase shares.

The Company may not assign an agreement for the repurchase of its shares or any right contained in such an agreement.

With regard to the redeemable shares that the Company has the power to repurchase, if they are not repurchased in a non-public way or in the form of an offer, the repurchase prices of these shares shall be limited to a maximum price; if they are repurchased by way of tender, the tenders shall be proposed to all shareholders alike.

Article 27 Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in relation to repurchase of its issued shares:

- (I) where the Company repurchases shares at par value, payment shall be made out of book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of proceeds of a new issue of shares made for the purpose of repurchase of old shares;
- (II) where the Company repurchases shares of the Company at a premium to its par value, payment up to the par value may be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for the purpose of repurchase of old shares. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:
 - (1) if the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company;
 - (2) if the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to its par value, payment shall be made out of the book surplus distributable profits of the Company or out of the proceeds of a new issue of shares made for the purpose of repurchase of old shares, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the new issue shall not exceed the aggregate of premiums received by the Company on the issue of the shares repurchased nor shall iue

- (IV) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or when its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

For the purpose of this Section, “assumption of obligation” include the assumption of obligations by way of contract or by way of arrangement (irrespective of whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable or not and irrespective of whether such obligation is to be borne solely by the obligor or jointly with other persons) or by any other means which results in a change in his financial position.

Article 30 The following activities shall not be deemed to be activities prohibited in Article 28 under this Section:

- (I) the provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance given in good faith in the interests of the Company, and the principal purpose of which is not for the acquisition of shares in the Company, or the giving of the financial assistance is an incidental part of some larger plan of the Company;
- (II) the lawful distribution of the Company’s assets as dividends;
- (III) the allotment of shares as dividends;
- (IV) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares of the Company or a reorganization of share capital structure of the Company effected in accordance with the Articles of Association;
- (V) the lending of money by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of its business (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of distributable profits);
- (VI) contributions made by the Company to the employee share ownership schemes (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of distributable profits).

Section 4 Share Certificates and Register of Shareholders

Article 31 The share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

In addition to the particulars provided for in the Company Law, the Company’s share certificates shall include such other particulars as required to be specified by the securities exchange(s) on which the Company’s shares are listed.

The Company may issue overseas-listed Foreign Shares in form of foreign depository receipts or other derivative means of shares in accordance with the laws and the practice of registration and depository of securities in the listing place.

During the period when the H shares issued by the Company are listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the Company shall at any time ensure that the following statements are included in all documents of title (including H shares certificates) relating to its securities listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and shall instruct and cause its share registrar not to register the subscription, purchase or transfer of any of its shares in the name of any individual holder unless and until such holder delivers to such share registrar a completed and signed form in respect of such shares bearing the following statements:

- (I) It is agreed between the share purchaser, the Company and each of its shareholders, and between the Company and each shareholder that each party shall comply with the Company Law, other relevant laws, administrative regulations, the Special Provisions and the Articles of Association.
- (II) It is agreed between the share purchaser, the Company and each of its shareholders, Directors, Supervisors and senior management, and between companies acting on behalf of the Company, each of its Directors, Supervisors and senior management, and each shareholders, that any dispute or claim arising out of rights or obligations specified by the Articles of Association, the Company Law, other relevant laws and administrative regulations, in relation to affairs of the Company, shall, in accordance with the Articles of Association, be submitted to arbitration, and submission to arbitration shall be deemed as authorizing the arbitral tribunal to conduct a public hearing and publish its arbitration award, which shall be final;
- (III) It is agreed between the share purchaser, the Company and each of its shareholders that shares of the Company may be transferred at the discretion of their holders;
- (IV) The share purchaser authorizes the Company to, on their behalf, enter into contracts with each Director and senior management, pursuant to which the Director and senior management undertake to comply with their responsibilities under the Articles of Association to the shareholders.

Article 32 The share certificates shall be signed by the chairman of the Board. Where the signatures of other senior management of the Company are required by the stock exchange where

- (IV) the share certificate number(s) of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (V) the date on which each shareholder was registered as a shareholder;
- (VI) the date on which any shareholder ceased to be a shareholder;

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholdings in the Company.

Where two or more persons are registered as joint shareholders of any share, they shall be deemed as joint owner of such share, subject to the following terms:

- (I) All joint shareholders of any share shall be jointly and severally liable to pay any amount due on relevant shares;
- (II) If one of the joint shareholders dies, only the surviving joint shareholders shall be deemed by the Company to be such persons as having the ownership of the relevant shares, provided that the Board has the right, for the purpose of amendment to the register of shareholders, to demand a death certificate where it deems appropriate to do so;
- (III) In case of any joint shareholders of shares, only the joint shareholders whose name appears first in the register of members is entitled to receive the share certificates of relevant shares and the Company's notices from the Company, and any notice by the Company addressed to such holder shall be deemed to be delivered to all joint shareholders of the shares. Any one of the joint shareholders may sign the proxy form(s). In the event that more than one joint shareholder attends the meeting in person or by proxy, the vote of the senior joint shareholder who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, will be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint shareholder(s) and for this purpose seniority will be determined by the order in which the names stand in the share register of members in respect of the joint shareholding.
- (IV) If any of the joint shareholders sends to the Company a receipt of any dividend, bonus or capital return payable to the said joint shareholders, the said receipt shall be deemed as a valid receipt sent by the said joint shareholders to the Company.

Article 34 The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the CSRC and overseas securities regulatory organizations, maintain the register of shareholders of overseas-listed Foreign Shares overseas and appoint overseas agent(s) to manage such share register. The original share register for holders of H Shares shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

A duplicate of the register of shareholders for holders of overseas-listed Foreign Shares shall be maintained at the Company's residence. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure consistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate register of shareholders for holders of overseas-listed Foreign Shares, the original register of shareholders shall prevail.

Article 35 The Company shall keep a complete register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall comprise the following parts:

- (I) the register of shareholders which is maintained at the Company's residence other than those parts specified in items (II) and (III) of this Article;
- (II) the registers of shareholders of overseas-listed Foreign Shares of the Company which is maintained in the places of the stock exchange(s) outside the PRC on which the shares are listed;
- (III) the registers of shareholders which are maintained in other places as the Board may consider necessary for the purposes of listing of the Company's shares.

Article 36 Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. No transfer of any shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the continuance of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register.

All H shares for which full payment has been made shall be transferred freely in accordance with the Articles of Association. However, the Board may refuse to recognize any instrument of transfer without giving any reason, unless:

- (I) The transfer document or other documents relating to the ownership of any H Shares or affecting transfer of any H Shares ownership shall be registered, and the payment made to the Company for the registration shall not exceed the higher expense specified by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange from time to time, in order to register the transfer instrument of the H Shares and other documents relating to the ownership of H Shares or affecting transfer of the H Shares ownership;
- (II) The share transfer document only involves the overseas-listed Foreign Shares listed in Hong Kong;
- (III) Stamp duty has been paid in respect of the share transfer document;
- (IV) Relevant share certificates and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer have been produced;
- (V) the share transfer document shall use standard transfer form stipulated by Stock Exchange;
- (VI) If the shares are transferred to joint holders, the number of joint holders shall not exceed four;
- (VII) The shares are free from any lien in favor of any company.

Should the Board refuse to register any transfer of shares, the Company shall, within two months from the date of the formal application for the transfer, provide the transferor and the transferee with a written notice stating its refusal of registration of such transfer.

Article 37 Subject to the Articles of Association and all other applicable regulations, upon the transfer of shares of the Company, the transferee shall be treated as a holder of the shares, whose name shall be listed in the register of shareholders. No alteration of the register of shareholders due to the transfer of shares shall be registered within twenty (20) days before the convention of shareholders' general meetings or five (5) days before the base day of which the Company decides to distribute dividends. If there are other regulations of the securities regulatory authorities at the place where the shares of the Company are listed, such regulations shall prevail.

Article 38 When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, distributes shareholders dces tifeguoldersgeneral meetings

or

(IV) the Company shall have, prior to the publication of its announcement of intention to issue a replacement share certificate, delivered a copy of the announcement to be published to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The Company may publish the announcement upon receiving a confirmation from the Hong Kong Stock Exchange that the announcement has been exhibited at the premises of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The announcement shall be exhibited at the premises of the stock exchange for a period of ninety (90) days.

In case an application to issue a replacement share certificate has been made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall send by post to such registered shareholder a photo copy of the announcement to be published.

(V) if, upon expiration of the ninety (90)-day period referred to in items (III) and (IV) of this Article, the Company has not received from any person any objection to such issue of a replacement share certificate, the Company may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant according to his application.

(VI) where the Company issues a replacement share certificate under this Article, it shall immediately cancel the Original Certificate and record such cancellation and issue in the register of shareholders accordingly.

(VII) all expenses relating to the cancellation of an Original Certificate and the issue of a replacement share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company shall be entitled to refuse to take any action until a reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant for such expenses.

Article 41 Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, the name of a bona fide purchaser who obtains the aforementioned replacement share certificate or a shareholder who thereafter registers as the owner of such shares (provided that he is a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 42 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person due to the cancellation of the Original Certificate or the issue of the replacement share certificate, unless the claimant can prove fraud on the part of the Company.

Section 5 Transfer of Shares

Article 43 Document of transfer and other documents relating to or affecting the title to any H Shares of the Company shall be registered by the share registrar in Hong Kong engaged by the Company. And the expense for registration shall be paid to the Company in the amount as stipulated in the Stock Exchange Listing Rules.

Article 44 All H Shares shall be transferred by an instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Board accepts (including the prescribed form or transfer form as required by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange from time to time). The instrument of transfer may be executed by hand or (if the transferor or the transferee is a company) affixed with the Company's seal. If the transferor or the transferee is a recognized clearing house (the "recognized clearing house") as defined by the relevant regulations of the laws of Hong Kong in effect from time to time or the agent thereof, the transfer form may be executed by hand or by machine imprinted signatures. All transfer documents shall be kept at the legal address of the Company or such other place as specified by the Board from time to time.

Article 45 The Company shall not accept its shares being held as security under a pledge.

Article 46 Shares held by a promoter may not be transferred within one (1) year from the date of the establishment of the Company.

Article 47 Shares of the Company issued before the public offering of shares shall not be transferred within one (1) year from the date on which the shares are listed and commenced trading on a stock exchange.

Article 48 Directors, Supervisors and senior management shall report to the Company their shareholdings in the Company and changes therein and shall not transfer more than 25% of the total number of shares they held in the Company during their terms of office. The shares of the Company held by them shall not be transferred within one (1) year from the date on which the shares are listed. They shall not transfer the shares of the Company held by them within six (6) months from the date they leave the Company, unless enforced by a court.

CHAPTER 4 SHAREHOLDERS AND SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Section 1 Shareholders

Article 49 A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares in the Company and whose name (title) is entered in the register of shareholders.

Article 50 A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class of shares held by him. Shareholders who hold shares of the same class shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

If a shareholder of the Company is a legal person, its rights shall be exercised by its legal representative or proxy of the legal representative on its behalf.

Article 51 The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

- (I) the right to receive dividends and other distributions in proportion to their shareholdings;
- (II) the right to legally request, convene, preside over, attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings and to exercise corresponding voting rights;
- (III) the right to supervise the Company's business operations, present proposals or raise queries;
- (IV) the right to transfer shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (V) to inspect the Articles of Association, register of shareholders, stubs of corporate bonds, minutes of shareholders general meetings, resolutions of the meetings of the Board of Directors, resolutions of the meetings of the Board of Supervisors, and financial and accounting reports;

Article 53 If a resolution passed at the shareholders' general meeting or meeting of the Board of the Company violates the laws or administrative regulations, the shareholders shall have the rights to submit a petition to the competent court to render the same invalid.

If the procedures for convening, or the method of voting at, a shareholders' general meeting or meeting of the Board violate the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or the contents of a resolution violate the Articles of Association, shareholders shall have the rights to submit a petition to the competent court to revoke such resolution within sixty (60) days from the date on which such resolution is adopted.

Where the Company has completed procedures for registration of change pursuant to the resolutions of shareholders' general meeting or Board meeting which are declared by the competent court as invalid or ordered to be rescinded, the Company shall apply to the registration authority for withdrawal of such registration of change.

Article 54 Where the Company incurs loss as a result of violation of the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association by Directors and senior management in the course of performing their duties, shareholders individually or jointly holding 1% or more of the shares of the Company for one hundred and eighty (180) consecutive days or more shall have the rights to request in writing the Supervisory Committee to initiate legal proceedings in the competent court. Where the Company incurs loss as a result of violation of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association by the Supervisory Committee in the course of performing its duties, the shareholders shall have the rights to request in writing to the Board to initiate legal proceedings in the competent court.

If the Supervisory Committee or the Board refuses to initiate legal proceedings upon receipt of the written request of shareholders stated in the preceding paragraph, or fails to initiate such legal proceedings within thirty (30) days from the date on which such request is received, or in case of emergency where failure to initiate such proceedings immediately will result in irreparable damage to the Company's interests, shareholders described in the preceding paragraph shall have the rights to initiate legal proceedings in the competent court directly in their own names in the interest of the Company.

If any person infringes the lawful rights and interests of the Company, thus causing any losses to the Company, the shareholders as mentioned in the first paragraph of this Article may initiate legal proceedings in the competent court in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraphs.

Article 55 If any Director or senior management is in violation of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, thus causing any losses to the shareholders, the shareholders may initiate legal proceedings against such Director or senior management in the competent court.

Article 56 Shareholders of the Company shall have the following obligations:

- (I) to abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (II) to pay for the shares based on the shares subscribed for and the manners in which they became shareholder;

- (III) not to withdraw its capital contribution upon the approval of registration by the Company, except as provided in laws and regulations;
- (IV) not to abuse their shareholders' rights to jeopardize the interests of the Company or other shareholders; and not to abuse the status of the Company as an independent legal person and the limited liability of shareholders to jeopardize the interests of any creditors of the Company.

Where any shareholder of the Company abuses the shareholders' rights and incur losses to the Company or other shareholders, such shareholder shall be liable for the damages.

Where shareholders of the Company abuse the Company's status as an independent legal person and the limited liability of shareholders for the purposes of evading repayment of debts, thereby materially impairing the interests of the creditors of the Company, such shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts owed by the Company.

- (V) other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders are not liable for making any further contribution to the share capital other than as agreed as the subscribers of the relevant shares of the Company on subscription.

Article 57 The controlling shareholders of the Company shall not use their affiliation to jeopardize the interests of the Company; otherwise, they shall make compensation for the loss incurred by the Company.

In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchanges on which the shares of the Company are listed, a controlling shareholder shall not exercise his voting rights in a manner prejudicial to the interests of all or some of the shareholders of the Company in respect of the following matters:

- (I) to relieve a Director or Supervisor of his duty to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (II) to approve the expropriations by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the Company's assets in any way, including without limitation, opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (III) to approve the expropriations by a Director or Supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of another person) of the individual rights of other shareholders, including without limitation, rights to distributions and voting rights, except pursuant to a restructuring of the Company which has been submitted to the shareholders for approval in a shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 58 "controlling shareholder" referred to in the previous article means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

- (I) he alone or acting in concert with others has the power to elect more than half of the Directors;
- (II) he alone or acting in concert with others has the power to exercise or to control the exercise of 30% or more of the voting rights in the Company;

- (III) he alone or acting in concert with others holds 30% or more of the outstanding shares;
- (IV) he alone or acting in concert with others in any other manner is in de facto control of the Company.

In the Articles of Associations, “acting in concert with others” shall mean two (2) or more persons reaching an agreement (either orally or in writing), pursuant to which any one of them shall obtain voting rights of the Company for control or consolidation of control over the Company.

Section 2 General Provisions for the Shareholders’ General Meeting

Article 59 The shareholders’ general meeting is the authority of the Company and shall exercise the following powers:

- (I) to decide on the Company’s overall operational policies and investment plans;
- (II) to elect or replace the Directors and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of Directors;
- (III) to elect or replace the Supervisors held by shareholder representatives and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of Supervisors;
- (IV) to examine and approve reports of the Board;
- (V) to examine and approve reports of the Supervisory Committee;
- (VI) to examine and approve the proposed annual financial budget report, final accounts report, balance sheet, profit statement and other financial statements of the Company;
- (VII) to examine and approve the Company’s proposals for profit distribution and recovery of losses;

(XV) consider related party transactions which are subject to consideration at the shareholder's general meeting;

(XVI) consider and approve external guarantees which are subject to approval at the shareholders' general meeting, the details are as follows:

1. Any guarantee which is provided after the total amount of external guarantees of the Company reaches or exceeds thirty percent of the audited total assets for the most recent period;
2. Any guarantee which is provided to the principal whose asset-liability ratio exceeds seventy percent;
3. Any guarantee with a single guarantee amount exceeding ten percent of the audited net assets for the most recent period;
4. Any guarantee provided to shareholders, actual controllers and their related parties;
5. Other external guarantees which are subject to consideration at the shareholder's general meeting, in accordance with Article 138 hereof, laws and regulations.

(XVII) consider proposals of shareholders representing more than 3% (inclusive) of voting shares of the Company;

(XVIII) consider other matters which are subject to determination at the shareholder's general meeting in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the Articles of Association, the listing rules of the stock exchange in the place where Shares of the Company are listed.

In the Articles of Association, "external guarantee" means a guarantee provided by the Company to other persons, including guarantee provided by the Company to holding subsidiaries; total amount of external guarantees of the Company and its holding subsidiaries means the sum of the total amount of external guarantees provided by the Company to companies including holding subsidiaries and the total amount of external guarantees provided by holding subsidiaries of the Company.

Article 60 Shareholders' general meetings include annual shareholders' general meetings and extraordinary shareholders' general meetings. Shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the Board.

Annual shareholders' general meetings are required to be held once every year within six (6) months after the end of the previous financial year.

Article 61 An extraordinary shareholders' general meeting is required to be held within two (2) months after the occurrence of any of the following:

- (I) the number of Directors is less than the number stipulated by the Company Law or less than two-thirds of the number specified in the Articles of Association;
- (II) the losses of the company which are not recovered reach one third of the total paid-in share capital of the Company;

- (III) when shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 10% or more of the Shares of the Company request;
- (IV) whenever the Board deems necessary;
- (V) when the Supervisory Committee so requests;
- (VI) other circumstances as provided by laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations or the Articles of Association.

In the case of paragraphs (III), (IV) and (V) of this Article, the matters put forward by a person requesting the meeting shall be included in the agenda of the meeting.

Article 62 The location for convening a shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be the domicile of the Company or such other place as notified by the shareholders' general meeting convener.

A venue shall be set for the shareholders' general meeting which shall be convened on-site. The Company may facilitate shareholders in the shareholders' general meeting by providing other means recognized or required by the relevant securities regulatory authority. Any shareholders who participate in the meeting in the aforesaid manner shall be deemed as present.

Section 3 Convening of shareholders' General Meetings

Article 63 The shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors within the period stipulated in the Articles of Association.

Article 64 More than two Independent Non-executive Directors shall have the rights to propose to the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting. Regarding the proposal requesting to convene an extraordinary general meeting by the Independent Non-executive Directors, the Board of Directors shall give a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving the proposal in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice for convening such meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the date of the resolution of the Board of Directors. If the Board of Directors refuses to convene an extraordinary general meeting, an explanation and relevant announcement shall be made.

Article 65 The Supervisory Committee shall have the rights to propose to the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and such proposal shall be submitted in writing. The Board of Directors shall give a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to

If the Board of Directors disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting or does not give any written reply within 10 days after receiving the proposal, the Board of Directors shall be deemed as failing to perform the duty of convening a shareholders' general meeting. In such case, the Supervisory Committee may convene and preside over the meeting.

Article 66 Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of Shares of the Company are entitled to request the Board of Directors in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, reply with a written opinion to state whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the request.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the shareholders' general meeting within 5 days upon after the date of the resolution of the Board of Directors. Any changes made to the original proposal in the notice shall be agreed by the relevant shareholders.

If the Board of Directors disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, or does not reply within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal, shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Shares of the Company are entitled to request the Supervisory Committee in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting.

If the Supervisory Committee agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the shareholders' general meeting within 5 days upon receipt of the proposal. Any changes made to the original proposals in the notice shall be agreed by the relevant shareholders.

If the Supervisory Committee does not issue the notice of general meeting within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed as the Supervisory Committee not convening and not holding the shareholders' general meeting. Then the shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Shares of the Company for more than 90 consecutive days are entitled to convene and hold the meeting by themselves.

Article 67 Where the Supervisory Committee or shareholders decide to convene a shareholders' general meeting by themselves, a written notice shall be submitted to the Board of Directors and filed with the relevant securities regulatory authorities and stock exchange in the place where the Company is domiciled according to the applicable provisions.

Before making an announcement on the resolution(s) of the shareholders' general meeting, the shareholders convening the meeting shall hold no less than 10% of the Shares.

Article 68 Where the Supervisory Committee or shareholders convene a shareholders' general meeting by themselves, the Board of Directors and the secretary to the Board of Directors shall cooperate. The Board of Directors shall provide the register of shareholders on the shareholding record date. If the Board of Directors fails to provide the register of shareholders, the convener may carry relevant announcement on the notice of convening general meeting to apply with the securities registration and clearing institutions. The convener shall not use the register of shareholders for purposes other than convening a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 69 Where the Supervisory Committee or shareholders convene and hold a shareholders' general meeting by themselves as a result of the failure of the Board of Directors to hold a shareholders' general meeting according to the as aforesaid requirements, the expenses necessarily accrued therefrom shall be borne by the Company and be deducted from the amounts due for payment to the Directors as a result of their negligence.

Section 4 Proposals and Notices of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 70 The contents of the proposals to be raised shall be within the scope of duties of the shareholders' general meetings. It shall have a clear topic and specific matters to be resolved on, and shall be in compliance with relevant requirements of the laws, administrative regulations, and the Articles of Association.

Article 71 When a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the Company, the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee or shareholders individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the Shares of the Company are entitled to propose resolutions to the Company.

Shareholders individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the Shares of the Company may submit ad hoc proposals in writing to the convener of the shareholders' general meeting 10 days before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of the shareholders' general meeting within 2 days upon receipt of the proposals and announce the contents of the ad hoc proposals. If the ad hoc proposal does not comply with Article 70 herein according to the view of the convener after his/her reviewing and the convener decide not to include this ad hoc proposal into the agenda, the convener shall issue a notice for not including this ad hoc proposal into the agenda within 2 days and specify the reason; and at the same time, the convener shall make explanation at this shareholders' general meeting, and make announcement on the content of ad hoc proposal and the explanation of the convener and as well as the resolutions of shareholders' general meetings after the shareholders' general meeting.

Except for circumstances provided in the above paragraph, the convener, after issuing the notice and announcement of the shareholders' general meeting, shall neither revise the proposals stated in the notice of general meetings nor add new proposals.

If a notice of general meeting does not specify the proposed resolutions or does not comply with Article 70 herein, no voting for resolutions shall be carried out at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 72 Where an annual general meeting is convened by the Company, it shall issue a written notice at least 20 clear business days prior to the meeting, and in the case of an extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a written notice at least 10 clear business days or 15 days (whichever is longer) prior to the meeting, to notify all the registered shareholders of the matters proposed to be considered as well as the date and place of the meeting.

For the purpose of determining the starting date of the notice period, the issue date of such notice and the date of the meeting shall be excluded. Business day in the Article refers to any day on which the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is open for the business of dealing in securities.

Where the laws and regulations and other regulatory documents provide otherwise, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 73 A shareholders' general meeting shall not decide on matters that have not been stated in the notice of the meeting.

Article 74 Notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall comply with the following requirements:

- (I) shall be in written form;
- (II) shall specify the time, venue and duration of the meeting;
- (III) matters and proposals that shall be submitted to the meeting for consideration;
- (IV) shall provide shareholders the detailed information and explanations necessary for the shareholders to make sound decisions about the matters to be discussed. This principle includes (but not limited to) the provision of the specific terms and contract(s), if any, of the proposed transaction(s) and serious explanations about the causes and effects when the Company proposes mergers, repurchase of shares, restructuring of share capital or other restructuring;
- (V) in the event that any of the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management has material interests at stake in matters to be discussed, the nature and extent of the interests at stake shall be disclosed. If the matters to be discussed affect any Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management as a shareholder in a manner different from how they affect the same type of other shareholders, the difference shall be explained;
- (VI) shall include the full text of any special resolution to be proposed for approval at the meeting;
- (VII) shall contain a conspicuous statement that a shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at the meeting may appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote at the meeting on his/her behalf and such proxy needs not to be a Shareholder;
- (VIII) shall specify the date and place for the delivery of proxy forms for voting;
- (IX) shall specify the record date for determining the shareholders who are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting;
- (X) shall state the names and telephone numbers of the standing contact persons for the meeting.

Article 75 The notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall be served on shareholders (regardless of whether they are entitled to vote at the shareholders' general meeting) either by hand or by post in a prepaid mail, addressed to such shareholders at their registered addresses as shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of Domestic Shares, the notice of a shareholders' general meeting may also be given by publishing an announcement. For holders of H Shares, in accordance with relevant process under the Listing Rules of the Stock Exchange and under the permission expressly given by the shareholders, the notice of a shareholders' general meeting, a circular for shareholders and relevant files may also be given by making announcement in the Company's website and the website of Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Article 81 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall have the rights to appoint one or more persons (such persons may not be shareholders) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and the proxies so appointed may exercise the following rights pursuant to the authorizations from such shareholder:

- (I) the shareholder's rights to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (II) the rights to demand by himself or jointly with others in voting by way of poll;
- (III) the rights to vote by a show of hands or on a poll, except that if a shareholder has appointed more than one proxy, such proxies may only exercise their voting rights on a poll.

If a shareholder is a recognized clearing house or its agent within the meaning of the relevant regulations imposed in Hong Kong from time to time, it may authorize one or more proxy(ies) as it thinks fit to act as its proxy(ies) at any shareholders' general meeting or class meeting of shareholders. However, if more than one proxy is appointed, the proxy form shall specify the number and class of shares represented by each of such proxies under the authorization, and signed by authorized proxies of recognized clearing house. Such authorized proxies may attend meeting

Article 83 The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be placed at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting before 24 hours prior to the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or before 24 hours prior to the specified time of the voting. Where the instrument is signed by another person authorized by the entrusting party, the authorization letter or other document authorizing the signatory shall be notarized. The notarized authorization letter or other authorizing document shall be placed together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting. The proxy attending a shareholder's general meeting on behalf of a shareholder shall produce his/her identity document and the form of proxy signed by the principal or its legal representative with the issue date.

Article 84 Any form issued by the Board of the Company to its shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast vote in favor of or against each resolution and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted at the meeting. The proxy form shall state that if the shareholder does not give specific instructions, the proxy shall vote at his/her own discretion.

Article 85 Where the principal has deceased, incapacitated to act, withdrawn the signed appointment prior to the voting, or the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the terms of instrument of proxy shall remain valid as long as the Company did not receive a written notice of the event before commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 86 A registration record for attendants at the meeting shall be compiled by the Company. The registration record shall contain items including but not limited to the names of attendants (or names of organizations), identity card numbers, residential addresses, the number of shares held or representing the voting rights and names (or name of organizations) of the proxies.

Article 87 The convener shall examine the legality of the shareholders' qualifications according to the register of members provided by the securities registrations and clearing organizations. The names of shareholders and the number of shares with voting rights shall be registered. The registration at the meeting shall terminate before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting and the shares held with voting rights.

Article 88 The shareholder's general meeting shall be chaired by the chairman of the Board. If the chairman is unable to or refuses to perform its duties, the vice chairman shall serve as the chairman of the meeting. If both the chairman and the vice chairman are unable to attend the meeting, a Director shall be elected as the chairman of the meeting by a majority of Directors. If the Board fails to elect a chairman of the meeting, a person may be elected as the chairman of the meeting by shareholders present at the meeting; if shareholders are unable to elect the chairman for any reason, the shareholder (including its proxy) with the largest number of shares shall serve as the chairman of the meeting.

If a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the Supervisory Committee itself, the chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall preside over the meeting. If the chairman of the Supervisory Committee is unable to or fails to discharge his/her duty, the meeting shall be presided over by a Supervisor elected by more than one half of the Supervisors.

If a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the shareholders themselves, the convener will nominate a representative to conduct the meeting. If for any reason the shareholders are unable to elect a chairman, the attending shareholder holding the largest number of voting shares (whether in person or by proxy) shall preside over the meeting.

At a shareholders' general meeting, if the chairman of the meeting contravenes the Articles of Association, making the meeting impossible to proceed, with consent from more than one half of the attending shareholders with voting rights, the shareholders may nominate one person to serve as the chairman and continue with the meeting. If for any reason the shareholders are unable to elect a chairman, the attending shareholder holding the largest number of voting shares (whether in person or by proxy) shall preside over the meeting.

Article 89 Directors, Supervisors and senior management of the Company shall, upon request of the shareholders' general meeting, attend such meeting for answering queries raised by the shareholders.

Article 90 The chairman of the meeting shall, prior to voting, declare the number of attending shareholders and their proxies as well as the total number of their voting shares, and the number of attending shareholders and their proxies and the total number of their voting shares shall be subject to registration of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 91 Minutes shall be prepared for shareholders' general meetings by the secretary to the Board. The attending Directors and chairman of the meeting shall sign on the minutes. The minutes shall be kept together with the registration record of attending shareholders and authorization letters of proxies.

Article 92 The convener shall ensure the shareholders' general meeting can be conducted continuously until final resolutions are made. If the shareholders' general meeting is suspended or resolutions cannot be made because of force majeure or other special circumstances, the convener

Article 96 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including his/her proxies) entitled to two or more votes need not to cast all votes in the same way.

When the number of votes for and against a resolution is equal, whether vote by a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 97 The following matters shall be passed by way of an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) determine the overall management principle and investment plan of the Company;
- (II) work reports of the Board and the Supervisory Committee;
- (III) profit distribution plan and loss recovery plan formulated by the Board;
- (IV) appointment and removal of Directors and shareholder representative Supervisors, and remuneration of Directors and Supervisors and method of payment thereof;
- (V) annual budgets report and final account report of the Company;
- (VI) balance sheets, statement of profit and other financial statements of the Company;
- (VII) appointment, dismissal or refraining from the re-appointment of an accounting firm;
- (VIII) matters other than those requiring the approval by way of special resolutions in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association.

Article 98 The following matters shall be passed by way of a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) increase or reduction of the registered capital and the issuance of any kinds of share certificate, share warrants and other similar securities by the Company;
- (II) issuance of corporate bonds;
- (III) division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or transformation of the Company;
- (IV) amendment to the Articles of Association;
- (V) acquisition or disposal of significant assets or provision of a guarantee in an amount exceeding 30% of the audited total assets of the Company in the most recent period, which were carried out by the Company within 1 year;
- (VI) other matters required by laws, administrative regulations, the Articles of Association or the Stock Exchange Listing Rules and those that the shareholders' general meeting by way of an ordinary resolution concluded that may have a material impact on the Company and require adoption by way of a special resolution.

Article 100 The Company shall not, without prior approval at a shareholders' general meeting, enter into a contract to handover all or material business management of the Company to a person other than to a Director, Supervisor, President or other senior management.

Article 101 No amendment shall be proposed to a motion when it is being considered at a shareholders' general meeting. Otherwise, the relevant amendment shall be regarded as a new motion and shall not be put forward for voting at that shareholders' general meeting.

Article 102 Where any shareholder is, under the Stock Exchange Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting for any resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against it, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares.

Article 103 Shareholders who attend the shareholders' general meeting shall take one of the following stances when a resolution is put forward for voting: for, against or abstain.

Any unfilled, improperly filled or poorly handwritten votes or votes that are not cast shall be considered as abstentions from voting by the shareholders. Its respective shares shall be counted as "abstentions" in the voting results.

Article 104 The chairman of the meeting shall be held responsible for deciding whether or not a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting has been passed. His decision shall be final and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of meeting.

Article 105 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts about the voting result of a resolution, he may arrange the recounting of the votes. If the chairman of the meeting does not arrange the recounting of the votes, a shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who dissents from the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to request the recounting of votes immediately after the announcement of the voting result, in which case the chairman of the meeting shall immediately arrange the recounting of the votes.

Article 106 If the counting of votes is conducted at a shareholders' general meeting, the result of the counting shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting.

The minutes of meeting, the registration record of attending shareholders and authorization letters of proxies shall be kept at the Company's domicile.

Article 107 If proposals on cash distribution, bonus issue or conversion of capital reserve into share capital are passed at the shareholder's general meeting, the Company will implement specific plans within 2 months following the end of the shareholder's general meeting.

Article 108 Shareholders may examine photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Company's office hours free of charge. If any shareholder requests for a photocopy of the relevant minutes of meetings, the Company shall send such photocopies within 7 days upon receipt of the payment for reasonable charges.

- (VIII) imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer of or ownership of the shares of such class;
- (IX) issuance of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, the shares of such class or another class;
- (X) increase in the rights and privileges of the shares of another class;
- (XI) a restructuring plan of the Company that causes shareholders of different classes to bear liability to different extents during the restructuring;
- (XII) any amendment to or repeal of the provisions of this section.

No approval by a shareholders' general meeting or a class shareholders' meeting is required for variation or abrogation of rights of class shareholders resulting from any change in domestic and foreign laws and administrative regulations and listing rules where the Company's shares are listed, and those resulting from decisions made by domestic and foreign regulatory authorities.

The transfer by the Company's holders of Domestic Shares of the shares held thereby to overseas investors for listing and trading overseas, shall not be deemed as the Company's intention to vary or abrogate the rights of class shareholders.

Article 112 Class shareholders so affected, whether or not having the right to vote at the shareholders' general meeting, shall have the rights to vote at class shareholders' meetings in respect of matters referred to in paragraphs (II) to (VIII) and (XI) to (XII) in Article 111, except that interested shareholders do not have rights to vote at class shareholders' meetings.

The term "interested shareholders" in the preceding paragraph shall have the following meanings:

Article 114 When the Company is to hold a class shareholders' meeting, it shall issue a written notice in accordance with the notice period requirements in relation to convening a general meeting under Article 72 of the Articles of Association informing all the registered shareholders of that class of the matters to be considered at the meeting as well as the date and venue of the meeting.

Article 115 The notice of the class shareholders' meeting shall be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to voting thereat.

The procedures of a class shareholders' meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical with the procedures of a shareholders' general meeting. The provisions of the Articles of Association in relation to the procedures for the holding of a shareholders' general meeting shall be applicable to a class shareholders' meeting.

Article 116 In addition to the holders of other classes of shares, holders of Domestic Shares are deemed to be different class shareholders with overseas-listed Foreign Shares.

The special procedures for voting of class shareholders shall not apply under the following circumstances: (I) where the Company issues Domestic Shares and overseas-listed Foreign Shares, upon approval in the form of a special resolution by its shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting, either separately or concurrently, once every 12 months and the number of each of the Domestic Shares and overseas-listed Foreign Shares to be issued is not more than 20% of the respective outstanding shares of such class; (II) where the Company's plan to issue Domestic Shares and overseas-listed Foreign Shares upon its incorporation is implemented within 15 months from the date of approval by the CSRC; (III) upon approval by the CSRC, unlisted shares of the Company may be converted into Foreign Shares for listing and trading on an overseas stock exchange.

CHAPTER 5 BOARD

Section 1 Directors

Article 117 Directors shall be elected or changed at the shareholders' general meeting pursuant to the procedures set out in Article 99 of the Articles of Association. The term of Directors is three years. A Director may serve consecutive terms if re-elected upon the expiry of his/her term.

The term of a Director shall be calculated from the date upon which the relevant resolution is passed at the shareholders' general meeting to the expiry of the current Board. If the term of office of a Director expires but re-election is not made responsively, the said Director shall continue fulfilling the duties as a Director pursuant to laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and Articles of Association until a new Director is elected.

Subject to compliance with relevant laws and administrative regulations, a Director whose term of office has not expired may be dismissed at the shareholders' general meeting by way of an ordinary resolution, provided that claims which may be raised under any contract shall not be affected.

President or other senior management may hold a concurrent post as a Director, but the number of such Directors may not exceed half of the total number of Directors of the Company.

The number of senior management of the controlling shareholder also holding the office of the chairman and executive Directors of the Company shall not exceed 2.

A Director is not required to hold shares of the Company.

Article 118 If a Director is elected, the Company shall forthwith sign a service contract with the Director, which, in accordance with laws, regulations and the Articles of Association, specifies the rights and obligations between of the Company and the Director, the term of office of the Director, liabilities of the Director for violation of laws, regulations and the Articles of Association, and compensation by the Company for early termination of the contract for any reasons, and otherwise.

Article 119

The Company shall be entitled to the income gained by the Directors in violation of this Article; the Director shall be liable for compensation if any loss is caused to the Company.

Article 120 The Directors shall comply with the laws, regulations and the Articles of Association and shall diligently perform their following obligations to the Company:

- (I) to exercise prudently, conscientiously and diligently the rights granted by the Company to ensure that the Company's commercial activities are in compliance with the laws, administrative regulations and the requirements of economic policies of China and that its commercial activities are within the scope stipulated in the business license;
- (II) to treat all shareholders equally and fairly;
- (III) to understand the operation and management of the Company in a timely manner;
- (IV) to approve regular reports of the Company and sign written confirmation opinion and to ensure the integrity, accuracy and completeness of the information disclosed by the Company;
- (V) to provide all relevant information and materials required by the Supervisory Committee and shall not intervene the performance of duties of the Supervisory Committee or Supervisors;
- (VI) to perform other obligations of diligence stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Article 121 In circumstances as stipulated in Article 193 of the Articles of Association and a Director is determined by the CSRC as forbidden to entering the securities market or other

Save for the circumstances referred to in the preceding paragraph, a Director's resignation takes effect upon delivery of his/her resignation report to the Board.

Article 124 When a Director's resignation takes effect or his/her term of service expires, the Director shall complete all transfer procedures with the Board. His/her fiduciary duties towards the Company and its shareholders do not necessarily cease after the end of his/her term of service and shall be still in effect within half a year after the end of his/her term of service. The duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company shall still be in effect after his/her resignation takes effect or his/her term of service expires, until such trade secrets become publicly available information. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require, depending on the length of time which has elapsed between the occurrence of the event concerned and the termination of tenure, and the circumstances and terms under which the relationships between them and the Company have been terminated.

Article 125 Unless legally authorized by the Articles of Association or the Board, no Director shall act in his/her own name on behalf of the Company or the Board. When a Director acts in his/her own name and a third party reasonably considers such Director acts on behalf of the Company or the Board, such Director shall declare in advance his/her position and capacity.

Article 126 A Director shall be personally liable for compensation for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of a violation by him/her of any laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association in the course of performing his/her duties.

Section 2 Independent Non-Executive Directors

Article 127 The Company has three independent non-executive Directors. In any circumstances, at least three of members of the Board shall be independent non-executive Directors and independent non-executive Directors shall be at least one-third of members of the Board.

Independent non-executive Directors of the Company shall include at least one accounting professional. Independent non-executive Directors shall faithfully perform their duties, safeguard the interests of the Company, and especially pay attention to the protection of legitimate rights and interest of public shareholders from damage, so as to ensure sufficient representation of interests of all shareholders.

Independent non-executive Directors may report directly to the shareholder's general meeting, CSRC and other relevant authorities.

Article 128 The independent non-executive Directors serve the same term as other Directors of the Company. Upon expiration of their terms, Directors may be re-elected and re-appointed, provided that if an independent non-executive Director has served for more than 9 years, his/her re-appointment shall be considered and approved by shareholders by way of a separate resolution. Documents attaching to the resolution sent to shareholders shall include the reasons why the Board believes such independent non-executive Director is still independent and should be re-elected.

Article 129 The independent non-executive Directors shall have the duties of good faith and due diligence toward the Company and all the shareholders. The independent non-executive Directors shall, in accordance with relevant laws, regulations, regulatory documents and the Articles of Association, carefully perform theirreholde8rsve5(1e)0.5(s)0.5(s)11d(1e)0.5(s)0sa(a)0.5(re)01(r)

The independent non-executive Directors shall perform their duties independently, without any influence of the Company's controlling shareholders or other entities or individuals who have interests with the Company.

Article 130 The nomination, election and change of independent non-executive Directors shall be made in a legal and standardized manner in compliance with laws or all the relevant requirements of stock exchange in the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 131 In order to fully leverage the role of independent non-executive Directors, independent non-executive Directors shall have duties and powers conferred by the Company Law and other relevant laws and regulations as well as the Stock Exchange Listing Rules to Directors and independent non-executive Directors.

Section 3 Board

Article 132 The Company shall set up a Board of Directors (i.e., the Board) which shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 133 The Board consists of 9 Directors, including 3 independent non-executive Directors. The Board shall have a chairman and a vice chairman.

The number of senior management officers of the controlling shareholder also holding the office of the chairman or executive Directors of the Company shall not exceed 2.

Article 134 The Board shall perform the following duties:

- (I) to convene the shareholders' general meetings, make a proposal or propose a resolution at the shareholders' general meeting for approval and report its work to the shareholders' general meetings;
- (II) to implement the resolutions of shareholders' general meetings;
- (III) to determine specific business operation plans and investment plans of the Company;
- (IV) to formulate annual financial budget plans and final accounts plans of the Company;
- (V) to formulate the profit distribution plans and plans for recovery of losses of the Company;
- (VI) to formulate proposals for the Company to increase or decrease its registered capital and issue corporate bonds;
- (VII) to prepare plans for the acquisition and disposal of significant assets of the Company, repurchase of shares of the Company, merger, division, dissolution and transformation of the Company, which are required to be submitted for consideration at the shareholder's general meeting;
- (VIII) to decide on the establishment of the Company's internal management structure;

- (IX) to appoint or dismiss the Company's President; based on the nominations of the President, to appoint or dismiss deputy President, secretary to the Board, chief financial officer and other senior management and to determine their remuneration and rewards and penalties;
- (X) to formulate the basic management system of the Company;
- (XI) to formulate proposals for any amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (XII) to propose to shareholders' general meetings the appointment or change of the accounting firm acting as the auditor of the Company;
- (XIII) determine an equity investment exceeding RMB100 million by the Company (including but not limited to establishment of a new company and joint venture, equity acquisition and participation in capital increase), provided that the total equity investment within 1 year which meets the condition specified in paragraph (XIII) of Article 59 hereof for consideration at the shareholder's general meeting, shall be submitted for consideration at the shareholder's general meeting;
- (XIV) determine a fixed asset investment exceeding RMB150 million by the Company (including but not limited to construction, technical transformation and asset acquisition projects), provided that the total fixed asset investment within 1 year which meets the condition specified in paragraph (XIII) of Article 59 hereof for consideration at the shareholder's general meeting, shall be submitted for consideration at the shareholder's general meeting;
- (XV) determine investment, acquisition or disposal of assets, financing, connected transactions and other matters, which do not meet the condition specified by laws, regulations and the Articles of Association for consideration at the shareholder's general meeting, or which are required to be determined by the Board, in accordance with the Stock Exchange Listing Rules;
- (XVI) other matters authorized by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association and the shareholders' general meeting.

Resolutions relating to the above, with the exception of paragraphs (VI), (VII) and (XI) above which shall be approved by more than two-thirds of the Directors, shall be approved by more than half of the Directors.

All resolutions related to connected transactions proposed by the Board of Directors shall be subject to the endorsement of independent non-executive Directors.

Article 135 The Board shall explain to the shareholders' general meeting regarding the non-standard audit opinions given by certified accountant in relation to the financial report of the Company.

Article 136 The Board shall establish Special Committees in accordance to the relevant requirements under the Stock Exchange Listing Rules and in light of the Company's needs and formulate the working rules of each committee, to ensure the implementation by the Board of the resolutions of shareholders' general meeting, to improve efficiency and to have scientific decision-making. The composition of members of the Special Committees of the Board shall meet the relevant requirements under the Stock Exchange Listing Rules.

Article 137 The Board shall examine stringently the external investment, acquisition or disposal of assets, mortgage of assets, and external guarantee of the Company. Specialists or professionals shall be retained to evaluate major issues.

Article 138 The total external investment, acquisition and disposal of assets, mortgage of assets, and external guarantee during twelve successive months which are considered by the Board shall not exceed thirty percent of the audited total assets of the Company in the previous year.

Article 139 All the Directors of the Company shall carefully treat and strictly control the debt risks arising from providing guarantee for any external party and shall bear several and joint liabilities in accordance with the law for the losses caused by violation against the power or procedures of approving provision of guarantee for any external party.

Article 186 A majority of the Supervisory Committee shall be required to pass any resolution.

In the event of a tie, a majority of the Supervisory Committee shall be required to pass any resolution.

Supervisors shall perform their duties faithfully and account to the community.

CHAPTER 8 THE QUALIFICATIONS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE COMPANY'S DIRECTORS, SUPERVISORS, PRESIDENT AND OTHER SENIOR MANAGEMENT

Article 193 A person may not serve as a Director, Supervisor, President or other senior

- (II) to act honestly and in the best interests of the Company;
- (III) not to expropriate the Company's property in any way, including (without limitation) usurpation of opportunities which benefit the Company;
- (IV) not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders, including (without limitation) rights to distributions and voting rights, except for a restructuring of the Company which has been submitted to shareholders' general meeting for approval in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 196 The Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management of the Company owe a duty, in the exercise of his powers and in the discharge of his duties, to exercise the care, diligence and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.

Article 197 The Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management of the Company shall perform his duties in accordance with the fiduciary principle and shall not put himself in a position where his duty and his interest may conflict. This principle includes (without limitation) discharging the following obligations:

- (I) to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (II) to act within the scope of his powers and not to exceed such powers;
- (III) to exercise the discretion vested in him personally and not to allow himself to act under the control of another and, unless and to the extent permitted by laws, administrative regulations or with the informed consent of shareholders given in a general meeting, not to delegate the exercise of his discretion;
- (IV) to treat shareholders of the same class equally and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;
- (V) unless otherwise provided for in the Articles of Association or except with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting, not to enter into any contract, transaction or arrangement with the Company;
- (VI) not to take advantage of the assets of the Company for his own benefit in any form without the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;
- (VII) not to exploit his position to accept bribes or other illegal income or expropriate the Company's property in any way, including (without limitation) opportunities which benefit the Company;

- (VIII) not to accept commissions in connection with the Company's transactions, unless with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;
- (IX) to comply with the Articles of Association, to perform his official duties faithfully, to protect the Company's interests and not to exploit his position and power in the Company to advance his own interests;
- (X) not to compete with the Company in any way, unless with the informed consent of the shareholders given in a general meeting;
- (XI) not to appropriate the capital of the Company or to loan such funds to others, not to deposit the funds of the Company in their own or other personal bank accounts, or provide assets of the Company as guaranty for the shareholders of the Company or others;
- (XII) not to release any confidential information relating to the Company which he has obtained during his term in office, without the informed consent of the shareholders in a general meeting; nor shall he use such information otherwise than for the Company's benefit save that disclosure of such information to the court or other governmental authorities is permitted if:
 1. disclosure is required by law;
 2. public interests so requires;
 3. the interests of the relevant Director, Supervisor, President or other senior management so requires.

Article 198 The Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management of the Company shall not direct the following persons or institutions (the "Connected Persons") to act in a manner which he is prohibited from doing:

- (I) the spouse or minor child of the Directors, Supervisors, President or other senior management of the Company;
- (II) the trustee of the Directors, Supervisors, President or other senior management of the Company or of any person described in item (I) of this Article;
- (III) the partner of the Directors, Supervisors, President or other senior management of the Company or any person referred to in items (I) and (II) of this Article;
- (IV) a company in which the Directors, Supervisors, President or other senior management of the Company, whether alone or jointly with the persons referred to in items (I), (II) and (III) of this Article or other Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management of the Company, have de facto controlling interest;
- (V) the Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management of a company which is being controlled in the manner set out in item (IV) of this Article.

- (I) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee of a loan to its subsidiaries;
- (II) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee of a loan or any other funds to any of its Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management to meet expenditure incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his/her duties, in accordance with the service contract approved by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (III) the Company may make a loan to or provide a loan guarantee to any of the relevant Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management or their respective Connected Persons on normal commercial terms, provided that the ordinary course of business of the Company should include the lending of money or the provision of loan guarantees.

Article 207 A loan made by the Company in breach of the preceding Article shall be forthwith repayable by the recipient of the loan regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 208 A loan guarantee provided by the Company in breach of item (I) of Article 206 of the Articles of Association shall not be enforceable against the Company unless:

- (I) the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan to a Connected Person of any of Directors, Supervisors, President and other senior management of the Company or its parent company and the lender were not aware of the relevant circumstances;
- (II) the collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 209 For the purposes of the preceding Articles of this Chapter, the term "security" shall include an act whereby a guarantor assumes its liability or provides property to guarantee in order to secure the performance of obligations by an obligator.

Article 210 In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management of the Company breaches the duties which he owes to the Company, the Company has a right:

- (I) to demand such Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management to compensate it for losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach;
- (II) to rescind any contract or transaction which has been entered into between the Company and such Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management or between the Company and a third party (where such third party knows or should have known that such Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management representing the Company has breached his duties owed to the Company);
- (III) to demand such Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management to account for profits made as a result of the breach of his duties;
- (IV) to recover any monies which should have been received by the Company and which were received by such Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management instead, including (without limitation) commissions;

- (V) to demand repayment of interest earned or which may have been earned by such Director, Supervisor, President and other senior management on monies that should have been paid to the Company.

Article 211 The Company shall enter into written contracts with Directors and Supervisors of the Company with regard to remuneration, and with the prior approval of the shareholder's general meeting, and disclose to shareholders, the remuneration of Directors, Supervisors and senior management. The above emoluments include:

- (I) emoluments in respect of his/her service as a Director, Supervisor or senior management of the Company;
- (II) emoluments in respect of his/her service as a Director, Supervisor or senior management of a subsidiary of the Company;
- (III) emoluments in respect of other services for the management of the Company and its subsidiary;
- (IV) funds received by such directors or Supervisors as compensation for their loss of position or for their retirement.

A Director or Supervisor may not sue the Company for such benefits due to him on the grounds of the foregoing matters, except for under such contract as mentioned above.

Article 212 The contracts regarding emoluments entered into by and between the Company and its Directors and Supervisors shall provide that in the event of a takeover of the Company, the Company's Directors and Supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, have the rights to receive compensation or other payment for loss of their position or for their retirement. For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term "a takeover of the Company" shall refer to any of the following occasions:

- (I) anyone makes a tender offer to all the shareholders;
- (II) anyone making a tender offer aims at that the offeror becomes a controlling shareholder which has the same definition as that provided in Article 58 herein.

Article 215 The Board of the Company shall place before the shareholders at every annual shareholders' general meeting such financial reports which the relevant laws, administrative regulations and directives promulgated by local governments and competent authorities concerned require the Company to prepare.

Article 216 The Company'

When the Company's statutory common reserve fund is not sufficient to make up for its losses of the previous year, current year profits shall be used to make good the losses before allocating such profits to the statutory common reserve fund in accordance with the above provisions.

After the Company has made appropriations to the statutory common reserve fund from its after-tax profit, it may, with the approval of the shareholders' general meeting by way of resolution, make further appropriations from its after-tax profit to the discretionary common reserve fund.

After the Company has made good on its losses and made allocations to its common reserve fund, the remaining after-tax profits shall be distributed in proportion to the number of shares held by the shareholders, except when the Articles of Association provide not to distribute in proportion to their shareholding.

Profit distributed to shareholders by the shareholders' general meeting before losses have been made good and appropriations have been made to the statutory common reserve fund in violation of the foregoing provisions must be returned to the Company.

Company shares held by the Company shall not be entitled to any distribution of profit.

Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any shares may carry interest but shall not entitle such shareholder to the dividend subsequently declared.

Domestic Shares and H Shares shall enjoy equal rights to dividend or any other distribution.

No powers shall be taken to freeze or otherwise impair any of the rights attaching to any shares by reason only that the person or persons who are interested directly or indirectly therein have failed to disclose their interests to the Company.

Article 223 Capital common reserve fund includes the following items:

- (I) premium obtained from the issue of shares over the nominal value of shares;
- (II) other incomes required by the finance department of the State Council to be treated as the capital common reserve.

Article 224 The common reserve shall be applied to make up the Company's losses, expand the production and business operations of the Company or increase the Company's capital. Nonetheless, the capital common reserve shall not be used to make good the Company's losses.

Upon the conversion of statutory common reserve into capital, the balance of the common reserve shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company before such conversion.

Article 225 The Company may distribute its dividend by means of:

- (I) cash;
- (II) stocks.

Article 226 After a resolution is made on a profit distribution plan at the shareholder's general meeting, the Board shall complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within 2 months following the shareholder's general meeting.

Article 227 The Company shall appoint receiving agents on behalf of the holders of overseas-listed Foreign Shares to receive on behalf of such shareholders dividends declared and all other monies owing by the Company in respect of such shares to be paid to the holders.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws or the relevant provisions of the stock exchanges in the place where the Company is listed.

The receiving agents appointed on behalf of holders of H Shares shall be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Subject to relevant laws, administrative regulations and rules of China and requirements of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, all dividends unclaimed for 6 years or more following the date of the declaration of the dividends, may be forfeited by the Company.

The Company shall have the right to terminate the delivery of the dividend coupon through the postal service to a holder of H Shares, but the Company may only exercise such right after the dividend coupon is not cashed twice in succession. The Company may also exercise such right after the dividend coupon is not delivered to the recipient for the first time and was thus returned.

The Company shall have the right to sell the shares held by a holder of H Shares who is not available for contact in such a way as is considered appropriate by the Board, but this shall observe the following conditions:

(I) the Company has distributed dividend to relevant shares for at least 3 times within 12 years, during which the dividend is unclaimed; and

(II) after the 12-year period expires, the Company shall publish an announcement in newspapers, specifying the intent to sell the shares, and notify the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Section 2 Internal Audit

Article 228 The Company shall conduct internal audit system and assign full-time auditors to conduct internal audit and supervision on the revenues and expenditures and economic activities of the Company.

Article 229 The internal audit system and the duties of the auditing staff of the Company shall come into effect upon the approval of the Board. The officer-in-charge of the audit team shall be responsible to and report to the Board.

Section 3 Appointment of Accounting Firm

Article 230 The Company shall appoint an independent accounting firm which is qualified under the relevant regulations of China to audit the annual financial reports and other financial reports of the Company.

The first accounting firm of the Company could be appointed by the founding meeting before the first annual shareholders' general meeting and the term of the office of the first accounting firm shall be terminated before the conclusion of the first annual shareholders' general meeting.

The Board could discharge the duties aforesaid where the founding meeting fails to do so.

Article 231 The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall hold office for a period commencing from the conclusion of this annual general meeting until the conclusion of the next annual shareholders' general meeting. The appointment may be renewed.

Article 232 The Company guarantees that it shall provide true and complete accounting evidences, books, financial and accounting reports and other accounting data to the accountant engaged without any refusal, withholding and false information.

Article 233 The accounting firm engaged by the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (I) to have the access to the account book, records or vouchers of the Company at any time, and have the right to require the Directors, President or other senior management of the Company to provide relevant materials and statements;
- (II) to require the Company to take every reasonable measure to obtain the materials and statements of the subsidiaries necessary for the accounting firm to perform its duties;
- (III) to attend the general meeting, obtain the meeting notices any shareholder is entitled to or other information related to the meeting, and address any general meeting over the issues concerning the accounting firm.

Article 234 If there is a vacancy of the office of the accounting firm, the Board may fill up the vacancy by appointing an accounting firm before convening the general meeting. But during the period when the vacancy subsists, if the Company has other accounting firm in office, such firm can continue to carry out the relevant duty.

Article 235 The general meeting may dismiss any accounting firm through an ordinary resolution before the term of such accounting firm expires, regardless of the contract made by the Company with such accounting firm. If the relevant accounting firm enjoys the right to claim compensation from the Company because of the disengagement, the relevant rights shall not be influenced by this provision.

Article 236 The remuneration of the accounting firm or the method of determining the remuneration shall be decided by the shareholders' general meeting. The remuneration of the accounting firm engaged by the Board shall be decided by the Board.

Article 237 The appointment, removal and non-reappointment of an accounting firm shall be resolved by the shareholders' general meeting and shall be filed with the CSRC.

Where it is intended to pass a resolution at a shareholders' general meeting to appoint an accounting firm which is not holding a current position to fill any vacancy of the position of the accounting firm, or to renew the engagement of an accounting firm engaged by the Board to fill up the vacancy, or to dismiss an accounting firm before the expiry of its term of appointment, such matters shall be handled pursuant to the following provisions:

- (I) before dispatch of the shareholders' general meeting notice, the proposal on the appointment or dismissal is delivered to the accounting firm to be appointed or to leave its office or already retired in the relevant accounting year.

Leaving office shall include the dismissal, resignation and retirement for an accounting firm.

- (II) if the accounting firm to leave its office makes any statement in writing and requires the statement to be informed to shareholders by the Company, unless being too late for the receipt of such statement, the Company shall take the following measures:

- 1. making instructions on the notice to the resolution that the leaving accounting firm has made such a statement;
- 2. copies of such a statement as the annex to the notice shall be sent to every shareholder who is entitled to the notice in such manner set forth in the Articles of Association.

- (III) if the Company fails to deliver such statement made by the relevant accounting firm in accordance with the provisions in item (II) of this Article, the accounting firm concerned may require the statement to be read out at the shareholders' general meeting and make further complaints.

- (IV) the accounting firm to leave office is entitled to attend the following meetings:

- 1. the shareholders' general meeting at which its term of office shall expire;
- 2. the shareholders' general meeting at which the corresponding vacancy caused by its dismissal shall be filled;
- 3. the shareholders' general meeting convened for the resignation that it takes initiative to render.

The accounting firm to leave office is entitled to receive all notices or other information related to the foregoing meetings, and to speak at the foregoing meetings regarding such matters related to it as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 238 Thirty (30) days' prior notice shall be given to the accounting firm if the Company decides to remove such accounting firm or not to renew the appointment thereof. The accounting firm shall be entitled to make representations when the resolution regarding the removal of the accounting firm is considered at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company. Where the accounting firm resigns, it shall make clear to the shareholders' general meeting whether there is any impropriety existing in the Company.

- (I) An accounting firm may resign by depositing a written resignation notice at the registered office of the Company. The resignation notice shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date stipulated in such notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:
 - 1. a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances in connection with its resignation which should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
 - 2. a statement of other circumstances considered necessary.

Article 246 The merger or division of the Company shall be proposed by the Board, and upon approval in accordance with the procedures provided in the Articles of Association, it shall go through relevant examination and approval formalities according to the laws. A shareholder

Article 253 Changes in particulars of the companies as a result of merger or division must be registered with the registration authorities in accordance with the laws. Cancellation of a company shall be registered in accordance with the laws when a company is dissolved. Incorporation of a company shall be registered when a new company is incorporated in accordance with the laws.

When increasing or reducing the registered capital, the Company shall register the changes with company registration authorities in accordance with the laws.

Section 2 Dissolution and Liquidation

Article 254 The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated according to law upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (I) the term of its operations has expired or other events of dissolution specified in the Articles of Association have occurred;
- (II) a resolution on dissolution is passed by shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting;
- (III) dissolution is due to the merger or division;
- (IV) the Company is in violation of laws or administrative regulations, thereby the Company's business license is revoked or the Company is ordered to close down or de-registered according to law;
- (V) where the Company gets into serious trouble in operation and management and its continuation may cause substantial loss to the interests of shareholders, and no solution can be found through any other channel, shareholders representing more than 10% of the voting rights of all shareholders of the Company may request the court of relevant jurisdiction to dissolve the Company;
- (VI) the Company is legally declared bankruptcy due to its failure to repay debts due.

Article 255 Upon the occurrence of the situation described in item (I) of Article 254 hereof, the Company may continue to exist by amending the Articles of Association.

Where the Company is dissolved in accordance with items (I), (II), (IV) and (V) of Article 254 hereof, a Liquidation Committee shall be established to commence liquidation within fifteen (15) days from the date of occurrence of events giving rise to dissolution. The members of the Liquidation Committee shall be composed of its Directors or the person approved by the shareholders' general meeting. In case no Liquidation Committee is established within the specified period to commence liquidation, the creditors may apply to the court of relevant jurisdiction to designate relevant persons to form a Liquidation Committee and commence liquidation. If the Company is dissolved in accordance with item (VI) of Article 254 hereof, the court of relevant jurisdiction shall, according to the relevant laws and regulations, organize the shareholders, relevant authorities and professionals to form a Liquidation Committee so as to carry out the liquidation proceedings.

Article 256 If the Board decides that the Company shall be liquidated (except for such liquidation as a result of the Company's declared bankruptcy), the notice of the shareholders' general meeting convened for such purpose shall include a statement to the effect that the Board has made full inquiry into the position of the Company and that the Board is of the opinion that the Company can pay off its debts in full within 12 months after the liquidation has commenced.

Upon passing of the resolution to liquidate the Company at the shareholders' general meeting, the functions and powers of the Board shall cease immediately.

The Liquidation Committee shall take instructions from the shareholders' general meeting and shall report to the shareholders' general meeting on the Liquidation Committee's income and expenditure, the business of the Company and the progress of the liquidation at least once per year. It shall make a final report to the shareholders' general meeting upon the completion of such liquidation.

Article 257 The Liquidation Committee shall exercise the following powers during the liquidation period:

- (I) to notify creditors or issue public notices;
- (II) to handle the Company's assets and to prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of the assets;
- (III) to deal with the Company's outstanding businesses related to liquidation;

A creditor shall lodge its claim with the Liquidation Committee within thirty (30) days after receiving notification, or within forty-five (45) days of the public notice if it did not receive any notification.

A creditor shall state all matters relevant to its creditor rights in making its claim and furnish evidence. The Liquidation Committee shall register such creditor rights.

Article 259 Upon liquidation of the Company's properties and the preparation of the balance sheet and inventory of assets, the Liquidation Committee shall draw up a liquidation plan to up Comm

- (III) payment of outstanding taxes;
- (IV) payment of the Company's debt;
- (V) distribution to the shareholders according to the class and proportion of their respective shareholdings.

The Company shall continue to exist during the liquidation period, although it shall not engage in any operating activities that are not related to the liquidation. The Company's properties shall not be distributed to the shareholders before repayment is made in accordance to the foregoing provisions.

Article 261 Should the Liquidation Committee find that the properties of the Company are insufficient for clearing off the debts after liquidating the properties of the Company and preparing the balance sheets and inventory of assets, it shall immediately apply to the court of relevant jurisdiction to declare the Company's bankruptcy. Once the court of relevant jurisdiction declares the bankruptcy of the Company, the Liquidation Committee shall hand over the liquidation matters to the court of relevant jurisdiction.

Article 262 Following the completion of the liquidation of the Company, the Liquidation Committee shall prepare a liquidation report, a income and expenditure statement and financial accounts in respect of the liquidation period and, after verification thereof by a certified public accountant in China, such Committee shall submit the same to the shareholders' general meeting or court of relevant jurisdiction for confirmation.

Within thirty (30) days from the date of said confirmation made by the shareholders' general meeting or court of relevant jurisdiction, the Liquidation Committee shall submit the same to the company registration authority to apply for de-registration of the Company, and to announce that the Company is terminated.

Article 263 The members of the Liquidation Committee shall devote themselves to their duties and fulfill their obligations of liquidation according to laws. None of the members of the Liquidation Committee may take any bribe or any other illegal proceeds by taking advantage of his/her position, nor may he/she misappropriate any of the properties of the Company.

Where any members of the Liquidation Committee cause any loss to the Company or any creditor with intention or due to gross negligence, he/she shall be liable to make compensation.

Article 264 Where the Company is declared bankruptcy in accordance with laws, it shall implement bankruptcy liquidation in accordance with the laws relating to bankruptcy of enterprise.

CHAPTER 12 AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Article 265 The Company may amend the Articles of Association in accordance with the laws, administrative laws and the Articles of Association. Under any one of the following circumstances, the Company shall amend its articles of association:

- (I) after amendment has been made to the Company Law or relevant laws or administrative regulations, the contents of the Articles of Association conflict with the amended laws or administrative regulations;

- (II) the changes that the Company have undergone are not in consistence with the records made in the Articles of Association;
- (III) the shareholders' general meeting decides that the Articles of Association should be amended.

Article 266 Where the amendments to the Articles of Association involves the Mandatory Provisions, such amendments shall be made according to the relevant laws and regulations and approved by the CSRC. Where amendments involve registration matters of the Company, procedures for alteration of registration shall be dealt with in accordance with the law.

Article 267 The Articles of Association and its amendments shall be approved by the shareholders'

- (II) the party seeking arbitration may select to have the dispute or claim arbitrated either by the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its arbitration rules or by the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its securities arbitration rules. Once the party seeking arbitration submits a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral institution selected by the party seeking the arbitration. If the party seeking arbitration selects to arbitrate the dispute or claim at the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, then either party may apply to have such arbitration conducted in Shenzhen according to the securities arbitration rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.
- (III) if any disputes or claims are settled by way of arbitration in accordance with item (I), the laws of the People’s Republic of China shall apply, except as otherwise provided in the laws and administrative regulations.
- (IV) the award of the arbitral institution is final and shall be binding on the parties thereto.

CHAPTER 14 SUPPLEMENTARY ARTICLES

Article 271 The Articles of Association are in Chinese. In case of any inconsistency between the Articles of Association and those in other languages or other versions, the Articles of Association in Chinese which are most recently filed with the Market Supervision Administration of Shenzhen shall prevail.

Article 272 In the Articles of Association, the terms of “no less than”, “within” and “no more than” shall be inclusive whilst the terms of “beyond”, “under”, “over” and “exceeding” shall be exclusive.

In the Articles of Association, “actual controller” means a person who is not a shareholder of the Company but is able to actually govern actions of the Company through investment relationship, agreement or other arrangements.

In the Articles of Association, “connected transaction”, “interested person” and “connected Director” have the same meaning ascribed to them in Stock Exchange Listing Rules.

In the Articles of Association, “accounting firm” has the same meaning as “auditor”.

Article 273 The Articles of Association shall take effect from the date when considered and passed by a special resolution at a shareholders’ general meeting of the Company.

Article 274 Any matter which is in conflict with the laws, administrative regulations, other relevant regulatory documents and provisions of the listing rules where the shares of the Company are listed as promulgated from time to time, the laws, administrative regulations, other relevant regulatory documents and provisions of the listing rules where the shares of the Company are listed shall prevail.

Article 275 The Articles of Association are subject to interpretation by the Board of the Company, which may, in accordance with the Articles of Association, formulate detailed rules, which shall not conflict with the Articles of Association.
